

Introducing Chris Ogden Primary English

Chris Ogden is an independent education and English consultant and Ofsted inspector working with a wide range of teaching school alliances, local authority schools, academies, MATs, and a group of international independent schools. He delivers subject specific English. He also provides specialist English teacher training for three ITE teaching schools. He is also a visiting lecturer on the Masters in Educational Leadership programme for the University of Chester and is part of the international teaching team.

Previously, Chris was a member of a nationally recognised, highly effective local authority school improvement team providing specialist support and advice on all aspects of teaching and learning, in addition to English. His particular areas of expertise are in Literacy, drama, curriculum development, and providing in-school support for schools.

Qualifications: MA (distinction), NPQH, PGCE, BA(Hons), LCI (Leading Consultant for Improvement accreditation - English; mathematics; stronger management systems), Registered OFSTED Inspector.