

Introducing Fiona Moss Primary Religious Education

Fiona spent 15 years as a primary school teacher and now works as a National Senior adviser for RE Today and is the CEO of the National Association of Teachers of RE (NATRE). She works with MATs, schools, SACREs, religious and non-religious communities and key stakeholders such as OFSTED, DFE and others.

She edits and write termly publications on RE for RE Today that can be purchased through NATRE and are received with NATRE membership. She is one of the writers of the Shropshire Agreed syllabus and has written many other agreed syllabuses. She has been involved in writing publications on non-religious and religious worldviews including the Understanding Christianity resource.

She trains on subject knowledge in RE, different ways of knowing, teaching strategies, support for subject leaders and governors. Her training is highly valued.